

TIMOTHY JONES

11/1/1894 – 1943

Timothy followed in the footsteps of his father Evan and joined the Merchant Navy

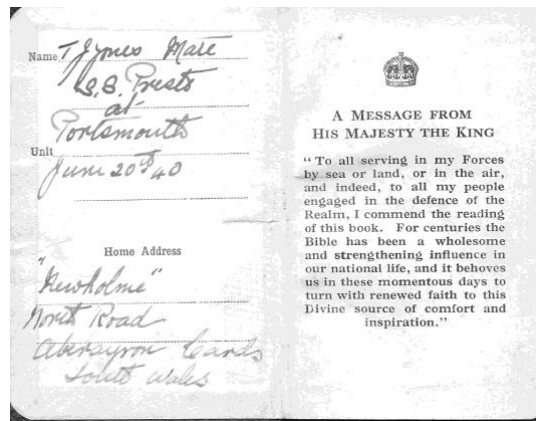

Timothy always visited his sister Raddie in Neath when his ship docked in Swansea. This is how he met his wife Evelyn, Raddie's next door neighbour

On Board SS Presto

Given to Service Men this is Timothy Jones's New Testament produced for the Naval & Military Bible Society. Timothy's name is inscribed and dated June 20th 1940. His address at this time is Newholme, North Road, Aberaeron

Timothy J Jones
Ship "Garnet Hill"
Glasgow

CONTENTS.

	PAGE
Commercial Code of Signals	5
Instructions for the use of Signal Book	5
Distress and Semaphore Signals	6
Astronomical Definitions	9
Seaman's Examination Paper	13
Chart Examination	17
Laws of Storms—Examination	19
Instructions of how to form the Answers	20
Compass Deviation Examination	23
Regulations for Preventing Collisions at Sea	26
Muster and Rocket Apparatus	41
Stowage of Cargoes	44
Rule of the Road, simplified and condensed	45
Seamanship	53
Tending Ship at Single Anchor	88
Steam Seamanship	91
Ship's Business	94

Pocket Companion For Local Marine Board Examinations

The Pocket Book is inscribed by Timothy with Ship :Garnet Hill Glasgow

Timothy's descendants have kept a report from 1917 (March approx.) which states:

Tim Jones Coedmore arrived home safely after his ship had been torpedoed. They were picked up after having been in the open for 24hrs. Five crew drowned and the captain taken prisoner. His brother seaman gunner D.O Jones was home on leave.

A letter sent to the The Burnett Steamship Co Ltd on July 22nd 1918 states the following:

Sighting Submarines – SS Tynemouth

Sir Thomas Davitt, Chairman of Lloyd Register of Shipping, has sent me your letter of the 15th inst. together with a letter you received from the Master of the above named vessel respecting the sighting of an enemy submarine at 1.50 a.m. on the 8th inst. by Mr T.J. Jones 2nd Mate.

As Sir Thomas considers that this case comes within the terms of my offer to give a reward of £20 to the first person on board a commercial vessel to sight and report to the Master the presence of an enemy submarine, I have much pleasure in enclosing you a cheque for that amount, which kindly hand to Mr Jones at the first opportunity as a reward from me for his good lookout

Yours faithfully A.F. Yarrow

Timothy married Evelyn Lucy Stanford from Aberdulais South Wales,

Timothy and Evelyn & their three children:

Allen, Joan & Gwenda

Allen Stanford
1918 - 1941

Hannah Joan
1924-2001

Elizabeth Gwenda
1925-2013

Timothy and Evelyn both died 2 years after Allen, Joan and Gwenda were still teenagers and spent their time between their home Newholme and their extended family home of Coedmore.

In 1947 Joan married Eddie Parry who with his brother Hubert ran the Aeron Woollen Mill

Gwenda then married Arthur Davies a teacher from Llanelli. She moved to live with him in Llanelli and spent the rest of her life there.

With thanks to Evelyn & Jean (both nee Parry) for providing the above information on their grandfather Timothy Jones and to Margaret Bevan (nee Parry) who checked the script.

Elinor Gwilym 2024